

Loyola News

VOL. XVI NO. 1

OCTOBER 14th, 1939

Welcome to New Students.

It is always an honour for any Loyola student or organization to welcome our "new" students to our threshold. We the written voice of the students deem it a pleasure to welcome not only the Freshman in College and in High School, but all the new students who have come to our revered halls to acquire a Catholic education.

We trust that you are now enjoying Loyola's traditional friend-ship and that you now feel completely at home among our fellow-stu-dents. We trust that you have now become acquainted with our many societies and it is our hope that you may contribute some part of your abilities and talents to them.

With your variety of former experiences you bring freshness and new ideas to our societies. You are a stimulant which sends us on to greater achievements. We hope to see you in the foreground on our spiritual, sports, dramatic, debating and literary fields.

We only need to say in closing that you make our Loyola, your Loyola and bring to her scholastic and extra-curricular achievement.

MACDONALD AT LOYOLA.

Fresh from their 8-0 triumph over Bishop's College at Lennox ville last Saturday the College team takes on the Aggies from St. Anne-de-Bellevue this coming Saturday.

Coach Tomecko was pleased with the showing his team made at Bishop's, but claims that more concentration on his front forces will round the squad into an A-1 foot-ball team
(Cont'd p. 4.)

DRAMATICS.

The drama club announces a night of three one-act plays for Friday November 10. Players for this are being chosen chiefly, from the groups not represented on stage last year. The experienced mimes are reminded that they too will groan before the footlights soon again; but, while standing by, both young and old should expect great things from the lads just seventeen... More later.

SODALITY.

Almost a month has passed and most of us are beginning to wonder where it has gone; but not so the Sodality. From the beginning of the semester the Sodality has been busy laying the groundwork, for another successful year. On September 27th, the first official meeting was held under the new officers. The heads of the various committees, which had been chosen since the last meeting issued a common plea for cooperation during the year. The names of the various committees were posted on the Sodality notice board, with the request that all who were interested affix their name to the committee they wished to co-operate with. The "Poor Committee" as usual received the most attention but the few still do the work whereas the committee, which is the one in most need of workers, received but one name. I am speaking of the "Missions Committee"; it seems a shame that the Sodalists should neglect this most important part of Christ's work. On Oct. the 4th, with the Sodality beginning to gain its full fighting strength due to the successful reorganization of the various committees, the third meeting of the year was held. Fr. Moderator, who always manages to get a bargain-told the Sodalists that the magazine "America" was offering the students a year's subscription for $2.25. At the same time he explained

Cont'd p.2

LOYOLA NEWS PUBLISHED
WEEKLY AT LOYOLA COLLEGE
MONTREAL

A Greater Loyola

"THIS IS OUR YEAR". This statement has been heard reverberating through the halls and passageways of our Alma Mater.

What are the reasons for this amazing statement? A few glances around may solve this problem. The first reason is that Loyola has the greatest registration in her history, outdoing, by far, any former year. Another reason for the zeal lies in the fact that the College is defending Eastern Canada Championships in both football and hockey, looks forward to even greater success this year. The High School has, what is said to be the greatest team in ten years, and one does not have to wander far around the campus to hear the cry: "that a football team we have this year".

Turning to other fields than those of sports one still sees reasons for the joy in every student's heart. We are confident of regaining the Debating Title, Profiting by the experience, gained in our International Debates last year.

Another season of success and splendid enthusiasm is looked for in dramatics after that marvelous achievement of last year, when the student body put on that great triumph, "Yellow Jack".

Last but not least, the Sodality has started already to outdo last year's many good works, both with regard to the poor and the missions.

So now the explanation can be easily found for that statement, "THIS IS OUR YEAR".

FRUSTRATION.

As '39-'40 gets under way and the News dusts off its stencils, the Voice of Freshman brings you the year's first batch of garrulous gossip, stupid stutterings... and ignane etchings...

Oh! So you're a New Boy, eh? Those of us high-school ancients who managed to scrape through a series of hazards, including supps, diplomas, holidays, found ourselves, the proud remnants of 4th., High, in the class of '43, But to our surprise, we hardly were the majority of the class, Thus the heading of the paragraph became the password for a week

The Thirteen Wise Men

Coming up soon, there is an annual shindig which the silken touch of all Loyola Philosophers has made venerable; the smoothest of all the ennobling touches have been, from the hands of the Boarding Philosophers. This year there are thirteen philosophical livers with to impart the lucky blessing to that classic take-off "The Philosophers' Concert.

On Friday, November 24th., how many of these will be down there pushing to put the thing over? We'll see, although thusfar, the boarders have not been notable, for their organization or determination... They are a group, no doubt important, numerically, also financially and environmentally, who, because they have no organisation or purpose, have never done as much as they could have for the College or for themselves

Let them wake up and look around! Let them use a little propaganda--the stuff works! We can see that all around us; millions of people believe the German news caster when he says, at the close of every bulletin, "Germany fights for the removal of an injustice, the rest fight for its continuation." Millions will believe it when they hear "Come and see the boarders! They walk! They talk! They fly in the air like birds!" That is if the boarders do start to walk, and talk, and fly around the institution like something, that's alive. But they'll have to wake up--propaganda is good if it has a Twentieth Century Limited behind it--not otherwise.

Let them begin with the Philosopher's Concert--Organize a Beef Trust. There are as many hot licks in a pound of boarder as in a hundredweight of day-scholar. Shoot the juice along the old nerves. Dominick, boy! Let the boys know you're out of the wheelchair.

Propagandize while you Philosophize!

No resentment was shown, however, on the part of Audet, Lebel, Gursky, and the rest of the lads, who, no doubt, will make news in columns to come

THE MIGHTY MITES

The Mighty Mites overcame their opponents, St. Ignatius, by a knock-out score of 11-10. The Mites, thus gained their first victory at Loyola.

HIGH SCHOOL SODALITY

The first important meeting of the H. S. Sodality, members and candidates, was held Friday morning. The Prefect, H. Seasons welcomed the new candidates and explained to them all what the Sodality means. W. Asselin, head of the Committee for the poor, spoke on Visits to the Blessed Sacrament, as a Loyola Tradition.

G. Morley explained the Novena for Mission Sunday (Oct. 22) and outlined the plans for the coming term. P. Shaughnessy spoke on the Queen's Work and also on the "America".

Up to now in the High School alone, over 90 Scapular Models and rosaries have been sold.

K. B. S.

The reorganization of the Knights began amid great enthusiasm one hundred and the have come to the meeting, the committees for the poor, the missions, for Catholic literature have been formed. A rugby team is ready to challenge all and sundry musical talent is remarkably plentiful this year, the traditional members visit the domestic chapel at break and everything points to a very successful year for the K. B. S. at Loyola.

COLLEGE SODALITY (con'd from p. 1) how the new edition of the "Queen's Work" was so designed as to afford facility in reading. Walter Wadey stressed the need of a Rosary for Sodalists. Walter urged all Sodalists who did not have Rosaries to get them immediately as this is the month of the Holy Rosary. On Oct. the 11th Fr. Daly stressed the need of more work for the missions. He deplored the fact that Loyola has turned out so few Missionaries; "this" said Fr. Daly, is due to the lack of attention which the students give to all mission activities". Thus next week the Sodalists will begin to make the students mission conscious. At the next weekly meeting, four Sodalists will speak on the missions from different aspects. Fr. Moderator went on to congratulate the "Poor Committee" on cleaning the poor depot, which is now ready to receive all the clothing we can gather.

There is a prize being offered by our Moderator for the best essay on the following subject: "What is Religion's place in the Modern World and Why?"

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS PARADE

Well fellow, it looks like the High School is in for a great year in so far as athletics are concerned. Activity has been rising on all sides. To top the events, the most interesting news is our new board of Strategy in charge of athletics. This column extends a hearty welcome to Messrs. Carroll and McCarthy-- both alumni and both anxious to see Loyola at the top. Then the new head coach of the Seniors Mr. Sheridan

All indications point towards a great year and a great team at that. Our new brigade are the intermediates under the steady hand of John Bracy to whom goes the praise for developing many of the present seniors. This team though not in a league is for men too old for juniors and too young for senior in hopes that they may maintain their football prowess for later years.

Next are juniors with new coach in the person of Mark McKeown with a strong squad.

Another coaching change is in the Bantams. These are Bill Murphy and Art Thomas both Alumni. Bill will be remembered as a coach when he led the juniors to their first city championship back in 1936. And Mr. Carroll S. J. is coaching the Mighty Mites.

The L.C.A.A. wants a little from you. How about some cooperation? Sell those raffle tickets and give us your support.

AS WE SEE IT.

BY "THE QINTS."

High School students! Behold, your new column. Here it is all dressed up, under a new name, new columnists, and full of new and better ideas. We Qints the five of us are out to give you better entertainment in this news

Our first bit of news deals with the return of Pop Woods. Pop as you know was our predecessor last year, and is back in fourth high. His old cronies gave him a big hand. We Qints" would sure like to have him on our columnist staff.

Another headliner was Chet Langen, an alumnus who is back in 8th high showing 'em how.

Much to everybody's surprise, Eddie Emborg returned-- thanks to the Valois Chamber of Commerce, who realizing Eddie's value has a man flag the train every morning.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL SEASONS OPENS.

Though considerably handicapped by injuries for two weeks prior to last Saturday's game the 1939 edition of the College football squad opened its regular season, defeating Bishop's College 8-5.

The game played at Lennoxville under a cloudy sky, was hard fought all the way, with the invaders displaying great spirit and natural tackling ability. Asselin, who scored all of the team's 8 points, and plunging half-Pare, were stand outs on the offense, while ends Macdougall and Rowe effectively stopped the Bishop's backfielders. Loyola scored 2 points in the first half thus obtaining an early lead which the enemy's last minute touch failed to overcome.

On the preceding Sunday Oct 1, an exhibition game was played... between the College team and the Loyola Alumni, with the billiard balls coming out on top in a nip and tuck, hard fought game with a close score of 7-6.

LOYOLA VS MCDONALD'S cont'd p.3

Frank Kaine, Loyola's versatile end, suffered an ankle injury at Bishop's and is unlikely to see action this Saturday. Returning to the game however will be "The Little Giant" Joe Cardin. Joe will add a lot of zest and experience to the backfield and should help the team in a great way.

Roy Thoms, whose brilliant play at middle, last week was a highlight of the game, will be moved to flying wing; Roy, always a good blocker should prove as capable as he did at middle. He is replacing Harry Allen who suffered some internal injuries at Lennoxville.

The Maroon and White squad has had to undergo many changes since the start of the season. The way they have fought off those handicaps should merit the admiration of each and every Loyola student. Loyola men last year had to fight tooth and nail for its championship. This year, they they will have to carry off the honors.

Let's see the College and High School really get behind the team on Saturday. They have a hard game on their hands and need every ounce of your support.

BE LOYAL TO LOYOLA.

LOYOLA DOWNS ST. LEO'S 20-3.

The Senior squad coasted through to there initial victory last Friday afternoon against St. Leo's. The first half ended with Loyola winning by a margin of 11-3. Both touchers were scored by our Burly Backfielder Pete Shaughnessy.

Early in the Second half Hugh Brace land intercepted a pass and carried our boys deep into St. Leo's territory. In the next play Warren tossed a pass to our Snappy end, Punchy McNally who sped across the dead-line. Shag, came to the fore twice before the final whistle sounded scoring two more touchdowns. To gain the last touch, "Jake" Warren tossed the old pigskin to Pete Shag, who hopped across 40 yards of St. Leo's territory to chalk up a final score of 20-3.

Fr. Sheridan has proved himself a first class coach by turning out one of the best senior teams seen on the campus in many years. The Seniors are playing a crucial game on Sunday afternoon at 2:15, against McGee. Every member of the team is depending on your support. DON'T FAIL THEM!

COLLEGE DIARY.

Hoi Hoi Hoi Well awright! Click Click Click the same thing. This starts off a new season of valuable inside information on all past present and future eveny which takes place in the hallowed corridors of old Loyola (Copy-right phrase.)

Shall we begin with a question? Yes. Thank you. What noted sower of knowledge has been insisting that "2 angles of a triangle are greater than the third." Maybe he meant to add "if one of 'em is a heck of a big one."

...Ed. Broderick insists that he was NOT duck-hunting when he broke his thumb. Our geese was wrong then.

...Royal member of the Nemo-Dat Club prophesy an early resuscitation

...A familiar phrase worked its way into College life as was overheard Rod. Dungan "That guy Dann is a screwball! Dann.. That guy Dungan is a screwball!"

...There has been a suggestion that a continued saga of the streetcar be written in the news by Frank Kelly entitled "Stranded on a St. Catherine 3".

...College men gaze with awe, admiration at....

METHUSALEM.